MESSAGE

Announcing That the Lost Has Been Found.

Councilman J. L. Toler, of the Fifth Ward, received a message last evening which clears up the mystery surrounding the disappearance of his father, who has been missing for two months.
On June 4, the father, Mr. V. Toler, left his home in Seneca, Kan., to come to Marietta for a visit. After he left home no word was received from him until last night.

Councilman Toler and other relatives have been untiring in their efforts to locate their father, but all in vain.
The message was received from St.
Louis, and although it is brief, there is enough to explain that Mr. Toler has been ill in the hospital in that city.

Cooney Again.

The crowd at the City Hall are telling a good story on Turnkey "Shorty" Wright, the hero of the story being Cooney Conn, the well known figure at the city prison.

Yesterday morning Cooney was at the City Hall, looking around for some breakfast and during his stay there "Shorty" lost ten dollars. After some search, he found $5 of it and Cooney kindly volunteered to help him hunt the balance.

After a fruitless search Cooney gave up and went down town. Shortly told Marshal Dye of his loss, just for fun, and the Marshal soon afterward found Cooney in a down town resort, pretty well along in the stages of intoxication. He had $3.95 on his person, a fabulous sum for Cooney, and the circumstances were of such a nature that he was locked up on suspicion.

And now Shorty's friends are giving him the laugh over Cooney robbing a policeman.

Delightful Entertainment.

Mrs. Charles Cone delightfully entertained a few of her friends at her home at Greenwood Farm Thursday. Those who enjoyed her hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall, of Wellsburg, W.
Va.; Mrs. Anna Lister and Mrs. Edith Daster, of Crawfordville, Ind.; Mrs.
Padan, Miss Padan, Miss Forst Strauss, Mrs. W. H. Strauss, of Marietta, and Miss F. W. Benedict. During the day Miss Benedict and Miss Strauss added much to the pleasure of the occasion by rendering some choice selections on the piano. The guests left for their homes at a late hour, all voting that they had spent a most delightful day.

Pleasant Party.

Through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. William Blohm, a number of their friends enjoyed a delightful moonlight drive last evening, it being the trial trip for Mr. Blohm's fine new band wagon, drawn by his span of beautiful white horses. The drive covered the streets of Marietta and its suburbs, winding up at eleven o'clock, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the entire party, all of whom testify to the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Blohm, as well as to the fitness of the conveyance.

Bitten By a Dog.

The little daughter of Joseph Rapp, Seventh street, was bitten yesterday by a dog belonging to a neighbor. Her injuries are not serious, although they are painful.
Marshal Dye was notified and with a double barrel shot gun he started on the hunt for the animal. He had not searched long when he found the dog, and a load of shot put an end to his canine capers.

Marietta Telephone Company.

It has been decided that the Marietta Telephone Company will begin operations of the first of September, and it will be an advantage to all subscribers to have their instruments placed by that date in order to have their names appear in the first directory issued.
The charge for business phones will be $24 and for residence $12 per year, all with individual lines.

Locks for the Ohio.

The U. S. steamer Edna, in charge of a party of United States Engineers under the lead of J. Nelson Caldwell, is making a trip for the survey of the Ohio river as provided for in an appropriation made by Congress for the building of locks and dams and the general improvement of this waterway.

Case Dismissed.

Joseph Schuman, of Long Run, who was arrested several days ago on the charge of assault with intent to kill, appeared in Squire Ahlborn's court Friday for hearing.

The prosecuting witness was not in attendance, however, and the case was dismissed.

Miss Maggie Lavelle.

Remains of Miss Maggie Lavelle, who died in Parkersburg Thursday evening, will arrive over the B. & O. at 12:55 p. m. today. Burial services will be held today at 2 p. m., standard time, and interment will be made in St. Mary's Catholic cemetery.

New Commander Elected.

At the regular meeting of Mount Tent, No. 323, Knights of the Macaca-bees, Thursday night, Mr. A. A.
Schramm was elected Commander to fill out the term of Mr. W. D. Strain, resigned.

Itching piles? Never mind if everything else has failed to cure you. Try Doan's Ointment. No failure there.
25 cents, at any drug store.

TRANSFER.

Of Marietta Railway Company Property to B. & O. S-W. Railroad Commoan.

The transfer of the Marietta Railway Company's property in this city was made yesterday to the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern Railroad Company. The consideration named is $75,000.

The sale of this property was made on June 19 by Special Master Commissioner B. R. Cowen, acting under orders of the United States Court, and the buyers were Judson Harnen and George Hoadley, Jr. At the time of the sale it was surmised that the buyers represented the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern Railroad Company. This, however, did not become apparent until July 24, when in the United States Court these gentlemen assigned their right and title to the B. & O. S. W. and it was, therefore, to the latter company that the transfer was made.

The property includes the Union Depot and main tracks leading thereto on the east side of the river, with yards and switches adjacent to the Union Depot, together with no small amount of land in the central portion of the city. The property formerly belonged to the old C. W. & B. Railway Co. and later to the Marietta Railway Company, although it practically was owned by the B. & O. S. W.

The documents were filed with Rec-order Athey yesterday afternoon.
They bear $75 in revenue stamps.

ELKS

Will Hold Reunion in Marietta Next Year.

During the Thursday session of the Ohio State Reunion of Elks, the question of choosing a place for the next annual reunion came up for settlement.
Marietta's claim to the honor was presented by advocates who knew their business, for although there were several cities who were after the honor, Marietta won out easily.

Typhoid Fever Claims Another Victim.

Mr. Richard Mudge, who for two weeks has been confined to his room by a case of typhoid fever, died at his home on upper Front street at 8:30 last evening.

Last Tuesday Mr. Mudge became worse and since that time the ravages of the disease were more and more noticeable, and his system was less able to withstand the onslaughts of the fever. His condition was very critical Thursday evening, and the attending physicians predicted death unless a change for the better would soon take place. No improvement was noticeable Friday and death finally won the victory last evening.

Richard L. Mudge was 37 years old and was born in Warren county, Pa.
Two brothers and two sisters besides his father and mother survive him.
They reside at Spring Creek, Pa.

Mr. Mudge came here about a year ago, on the solicitation of his uncle, E.
Clark, Jr., to superintend the repairs which were made on the Norwood hotel. When the project of the Acme Brick Plant was broached and finally put in operation, Mr. Mudge became one of the stockholders and was finally elected to the superintendency of the plant. In order to be near his business he built a handsome new house in Norwood, which was almost completed and ready for occupancy at the time of his death.

Two children, a boy six years old, and a baby girl a year and a half old, besides his wife are left to mourn his loss.

The body will be taken over the early morning train on the O. R. R. to his old home and interment will be made in the family burying ground there.

Mr. Mudge had only been a resident of the town a year, but during that time he has made a host of devoted friends, who mourn and regret his untimely death. He was a member of the First Congregational church, of this city, and was an earnest Christian worker. His was a noble personality, stimulating all to higher and better things.

A SICK PERSON'S LIFE

Often depends upon two men—the doctor and the druggist. When sickness comes, you send for a physician—the very best you can find. He writes a prescription. Your recovery depends on that—and something else. The something else is the druggist. A good druggist uses good, pure, fresh drugs. He is an experienced man, who makes no mistakes. He fills prescriptions just like the doctor wants them filled.
No druggists, we believe, are more careful or competent than we are. If you bring prescriptions here to be filled, we will give them the most careful attention. We will fill them right.
Our prices are moderate. The best service costs no more here than the next best elsewhere.
